Summary: (machine translated)
A nice little addition to the classic Trodo.

Hydrology:

Access:

Approach: (machine translated)
The stream has been climbed from the very top, but only becomes interesting from a height of 780m. So it's best to walk up the path west of the canyon and then look for tracks down the 40-50 degree slope.

Tour: (machine translated)
In the superiore there are 2 parts with about 4 steps each. Smaller jumps are also possible.

Return: (machine translated)
Superiore only makes sense if you also do the inferiore.
