Summary: (machine translated)
Forest Gorge

Hydrology:

Access:

Approach: (machine translated)
Possibly shuttle possible.

Tour: (machine translated)
A little involved "forest" canyon that includes a series of waterfalls with heights between 6 and 24 meters. The final sequence is aesthetically pleasing in a beautifully formed rock.
However, the abseils are rather impractical and have poor friction for the most part.

Possibility to get out of the water at any time. Numerous escape routes below the road in the RG

Return: (machine translated)
From the stream, follow the road to the left until the first junction, here turn left into Chemin d'Amont le Nant. After a few meters, turn right onto the hiking trail and follow it uphill to the road. Turn left here to the car.
