Access: (machine translated)
We will take the A30 to Hellín where we will exit to take the CM412 towards Yeste. We will pass Elche de la Sierra looking for the Pto del Peralejo and the mountains of the headwaters of the Mundo river.
After the p.k. 218 we have the detour to the right to Pinilla by the AB5015, we will follow this road for 8 kms along the Mundo river to the picturesque village of Alfera. About 300m before we take a small road on the right to Vegallera, we will pass through the upper part of La Alfera, in a couple of zig-zag of the road we will go up in the valley through pine forests.
We will arrive after 2km to a sharp left curve and 300m later an esplanade to our left which we can access will serve as a parking place.

Approach: (machine translated)
Following a half path down to a dry riverbed, we cross it and go up, 100m later a milestone marks where to leave the trail to take the cordal that goes up the mountain to a track. We will take it to the left with the riverbed of our ravine already at our feet. About 250m later we leave the track and go down to the riverbed.
