Summary: (machine translated)
Also known as Barranco del Castillo, it is a generally dry canyon, well formed and with very generous rappels, up to 70m. Good facilities somewhat exposed and slippery rock in case of rain.
We will leave in the same way as in the Guayonje canyon by the coast to Mesa del Mar, which requires a combination of vehicles.
There have been reported problems with ticks some years in this area.
Protected Landscape of the Costa de Acentejo, ask for possible restrictions in the Cabildo.
