Summary: (machine translated)
This is not a canyoning route. A strenuous ascent through undergrowth and small inclines leads to two insignificant small waterfalls. To avoid.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
Downhill access: Leave the A12 at the Deiva Marina toll booth and drive down to the village of Piazza at the first junction. The road makes a large bend to go around a hill and shortly afterwards a bridge crosses the river. Park just after the bridge on a dirt road along the stream.

Uphill access: head back towards the toll booth and take the direction of Passo del Bracco. Once on the SS1, head east and continue for about 2 km until you reach a clearing at a bend about 500 meters before a dilapidated road warden's house, which is already visible from the parking lot.

Approach: (machine translated)
Cross the guardrail and walk diagonally down towards the east until you reach the water.

Tour:

Return: (machine translated)
Within sight of the highway bridge, leave the left bank and find your way to the parking lot in the valley.
