Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From the eastern shore of Lake Geneva - Montreux - up the Rhone valley in a southerly direction. After about 17 km on the N9/A9 you reach the Aigle exit (no. 17) and from here drive straight on in a westerly direction to Vionnaz (from the exit to the traffic circle in Vionnaz) for about 3 km. If you are coming down the Rhone, the Aigle exit is about 21.5 km south of Martigny on the Autoroute de Rhône. From the traffic circle in Vionnaz, drive 60 m towards the center of the village and then turn half-left after 60 m onto the Route de Torgon, which leads up to the village of the same name. We now drive uphill in the village. 250m after the first left-hand serpentine, we park the car below an old barn on the right-hand side of the road.

Quickly you reach the gorge, several rappel to the canyon exit, where from the left the waterfalls of the Tine des Places cascade down. Now descend in the stream until you can exit on the left on a path.

Return: (machine translated)
Follow the path along the left edge of the stream downhill until you meet the access path. Follow it back to the car.

Automatisch importiert von Descente-Canyon.com für Canyon Greffe DC+, ça poussait bien dans la C15 (passage entre des troncs, attention au cheminement pendant le rappel et au risque de coincement de corde) mais rien de bien méchant. Un petit rééquipement ne ferait pas de mal, attention à bien vérifier les points avant de se pendre dessus, on a resserré quelques écrous, ajoutés 1-2 maillons, etc.On a débuté le canyon tout en haut vers 720m là où le chemin croise le torrent (pas trouvé le bon chemin d'accès, ça rajoute une bonne demi-heure de randonnée aquatique assez jolie...). À refaire on laisserait une voiture au point 682m ou au point 802m (route Vionnaz-Torgon) et on accéderait par le même endroit -> approche bien moins pénible que depuis le bas...
