Summary: (machine translated)
rappel canyon

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Dry canyon that exits in a small lake.

Access: (machine translated)
From Kalentzi in the direction of Monolithi, turn straight ahead (left) in a right-hand bend and follow the track to the bridge over the stream of the same name.

Approach: (machine translated)
At the bridge you can reach the first rappel in 1 minute.

Tour: (machine translated)
The first rappel follows directly in the river, then there is a longer river walk with many downclimbs. Then the rock faces get closer and things get interesting again. The canyon exits into a great lake, which is quite refreshing even in high temperatures. You can climb inside through the rock hole and admire the cavern.

Return: (machine translated)
From the lake, keep right and follow the steep path upwards until you either reach the second vehicle or continue to the access bridge.
