Summary: (machine translated) rappel canyon
Hydrology: (machine translated) Dry canyon that exits in a small lake.
Access: (machine translated) From Kalentzi in the direction of Monolithi, turn straight ahead (left) in a right-hand bend and follow the track to the bridge over the stream of the same name.
Approach: (machine translated) At the bridge you can reach the first rappel in 1 minute.
Tour: (machine translated) The first rappel follows directly in the river, then there is a longer river walk with many downclimbs. Then the rock faces get closer and things get interesting again. The canyon exits into a great lake, which is quite refreshing even in high temperatures. You can climb inside through the rock hole and admire the cavern.
Return: (machine translated) From the lake, keep right and follow the steep path upwards until you either reach the second vehicle or continue to the access bridge.
