Summary: (machine translated)
Also known as Torrent de Sant Romà, it is a dry canyon except after rains, very short, to complete a day. From collector

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Berga direction Puigcerdà by the C16, passing the swamp we have the detour to the left to St Corneli and St Josep by the BV4025, beautiful road of Berguedá that zigzagging goes up the mountain, between forests, acquiring better and better views over the valley. This area in autumn is simply a marvel of colors.
Access to Bcos Sant Corneli
We pass Sant Josep and just before pk3 we have a sharp right curve with two bridges over the stream. After the second one there is a place to park on the right.

Approach: (machine translated)
We return to the bridge and access

Tour: (machine translated)
Generally dry except after rains. We start right under the bridge with a first rappel, the next one from a tree past the second bridge. The following rappels are to save a ramp.

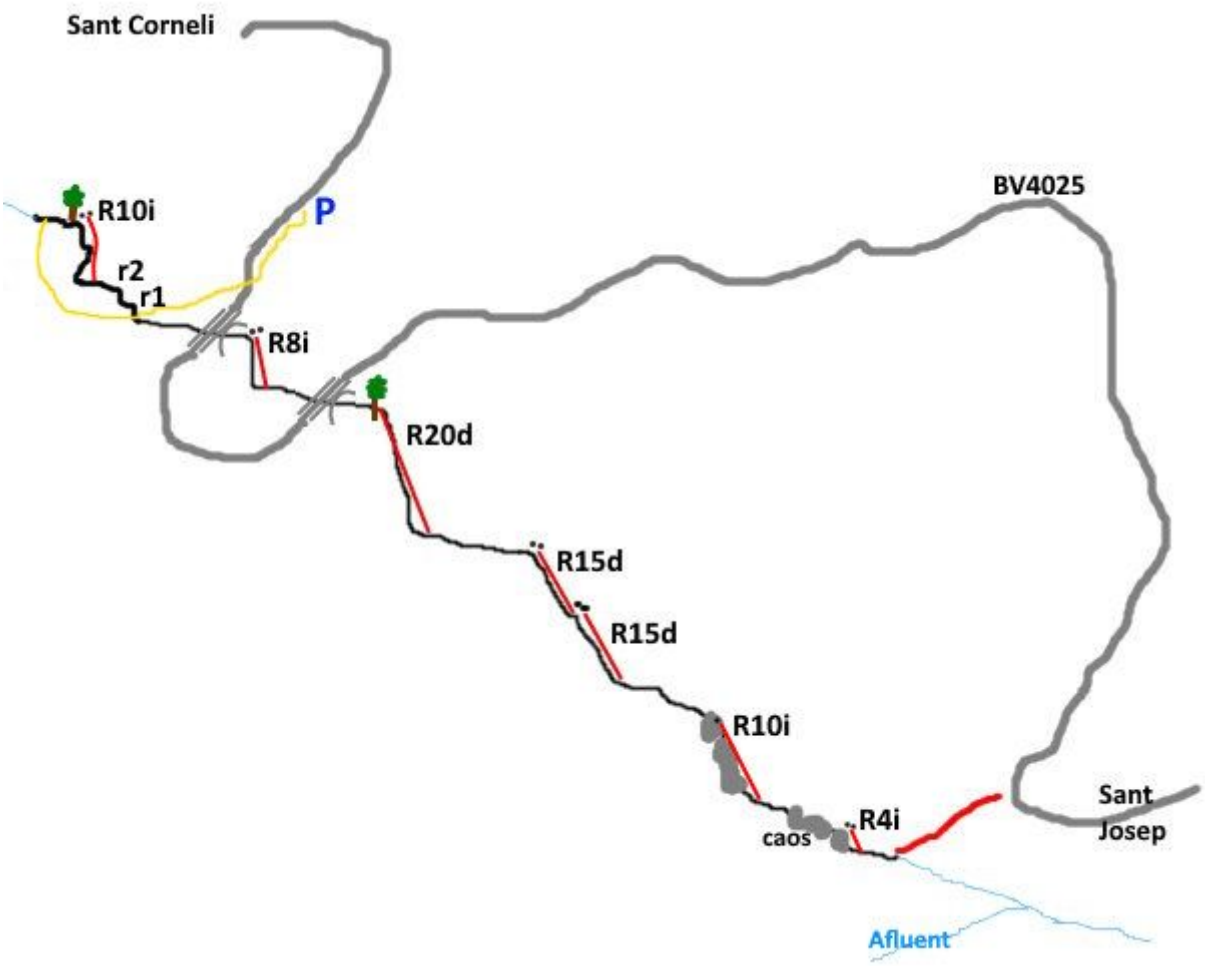

Return: (machine translated)
After the last rappel and as the gully opens up, we take the left side looking for the best way to get out to the road. We will only have to go up the road to the car.
