Two waterfalls

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Always a little water, preferably in spring or fall

Access: (machine translated)
From St. Chamond, take the D2 in the direction of La Valla-en-Gier and Le Par du Pilat. Shortly after the La Rive dam, take a hairpin bend to the left towards Le Soleil and Les Sagnes. After a few kilometers, turn right towards La Scie du Bost. Park in the parking lot on the banks of the stream without obstructing traffic.

Approach: (machine translated)
Walk up to the buildings and then turn left onto a brown and white marked path that winds its way to the foot of the Saut du Gier. Climb up over the scree to find an access to the waterfalls (easy climbing passage of 2 m).

Tour: (machine translated)
A first jump at the AN, a 20 m high waterfall (AN on the right). Rope traverse (AN), then the "Saut du Gier" waterfall (27 m), which is the most beautiful (AN right).

Automatisch importiert von Descente-Canyon.com für Canyon Gier C'est mignon avec l'eau de ces derniers jours, ça fait une petite balade.Il n'y a plus la main courante avant la dernière cascade, amarrages encore en place.La cascade intermédiaire demanderait à être équipée en fixe, il y a une zone propice, cela permettrait à l'arbre de se libérer de son câble, qui commence à être un peu petit pour lui.
