Summary: (machine translated)
Also known as a tributary of Olvido, it is another way to make this beautiful descent, similar to its main branch and ends next to the last rappel of this one. Dry and with interesting verticals, we can link the 3 in the same day (Mika, Olvido and Cova Pinar).

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We must reach the Rincón de las Mermeladas or Rincón del Olvido, in the port of Confrides.
By the A7 exit Alcoy and CV70 to Benilloba, we will pass Benilloba and Benasau to reach the port of Confrides, soon we arrived at the sale of El Rincón.
If we go from Benidorm, we also take the CV70 (Polop and La Nucia), until we pass Confrides and arrive at the inn.
Location of parking lots and ravines
From the inn, if we go towards Confrides, shortly (250m) we have a small road on the left by which we enter and 200m later there is a track on the left. This would be the lower parking or return if we do the Bco Olvido.
Before the sale, almost in the port, we have a track that goes up the mountain around the ridges and accessing the back, reaching a deposit in a left curve, there is a track to the right by which we will enter with views of the Comptador on the right. Just at the pass we can park at the foot of the peak.

Approach: (machine translated) access bcos Mika, Olvido and Cova Pinar
From the upper parking there is a path that leads to the head of Olvido, you can not get lost, from here around the head we continue over the cuts to find the next stream that is our ravine.
From the lower parking, continue walking along the track that climbs to the pass, soon the track becomes a path and, zigzagging, leaves us in the pass.
Once at the pass we can go around the ridge to go to the head of the Olvido ravine or make the ridge and access through the Canal de Mika.

Tour: (machine translated)
Simple except for the R25 overhang.

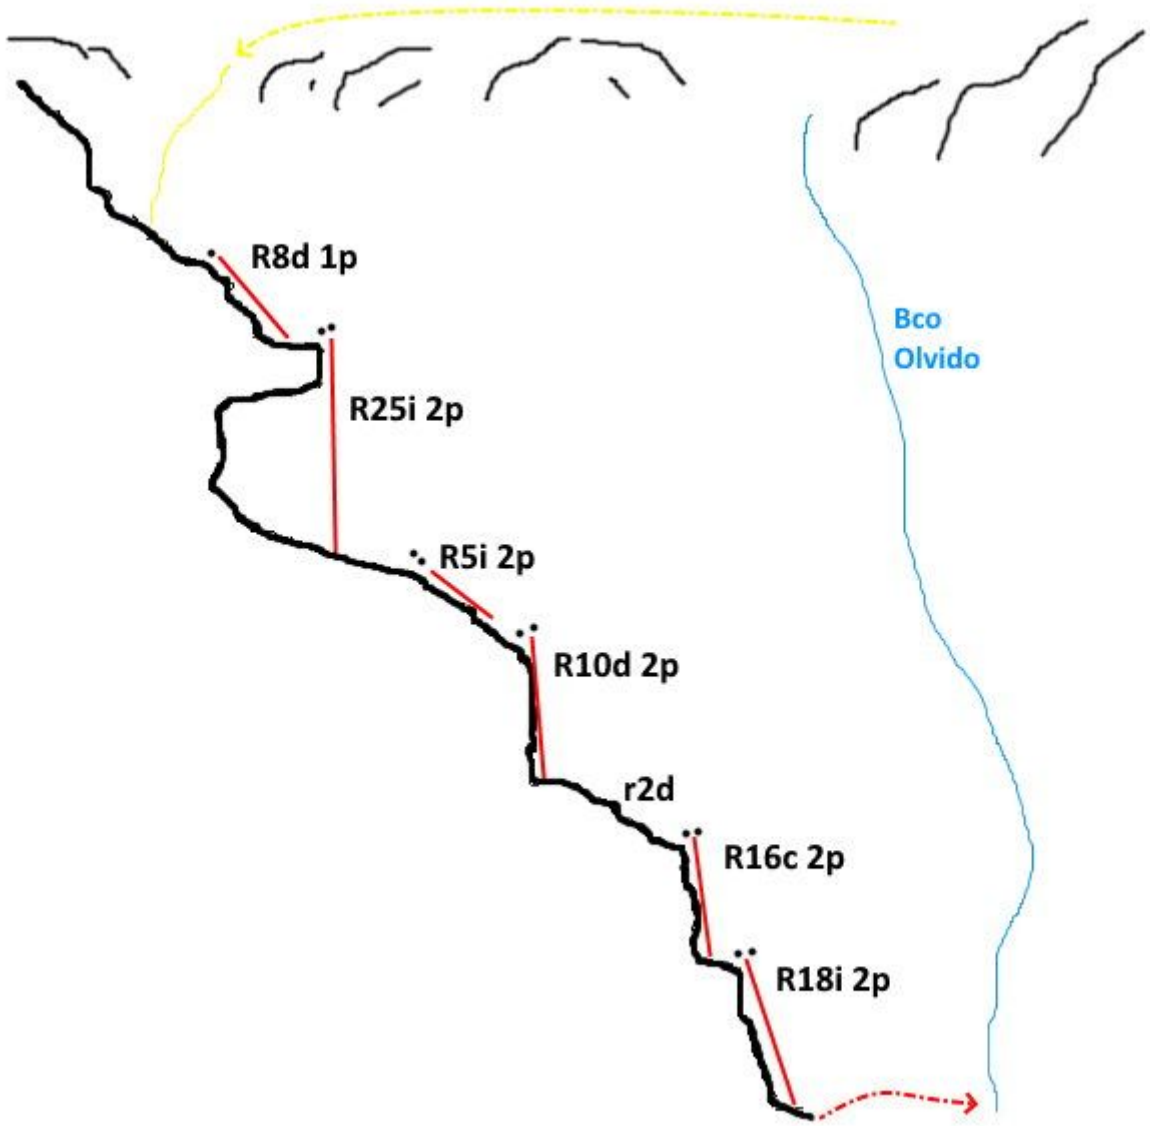

Return: (machine translated)
We go left to look for the end of the Bco del Olvido, we will make its last rappel and once here we can leave by a path to our left, attached to the wall climbing a little. There are some milestones and at times you can see the path trodden. Soon we arrive at the path of ascent / access to the pass.
Another option is to follow the ravine to the Rincón.
