Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Short and mostly dry canyon that can be combined with Peña Camapanario.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
Image of Peña Campanario and Tarán ravines
We approach Torrebarrio by the LE481, at the foot of the massif of Peña Ubiña and its magnificent views. After passing the village we continue 1.8kms to a small clearing on the left where we park or 100m before we take the small track to the right that leads to a cattle farm. If we access by the track we must be careful to leave the vehicle in such a way that it does not hinder us.

Approach: (machine translated)
Image of Peña Campanario and Taran ravines.
The approach is joint for Peña Campanario and Taran. Before the livestock farm we take a path to the left that climbs halfway up the slope flanking the cirque in which we can see a crack in front (Tarán ravine) and begins to glimpse another more to the left Peña Campanario. Follow this path over the ravine until you reach the funnel entrance of Camapanario, cross the stream and continue along the back of the Peña del Campanario. After passing this pass we enter the funnel of Tarán. We just have to go down.

Tour: (machine translated)
Several abseils and rappels in a short, fast and easy canyon.

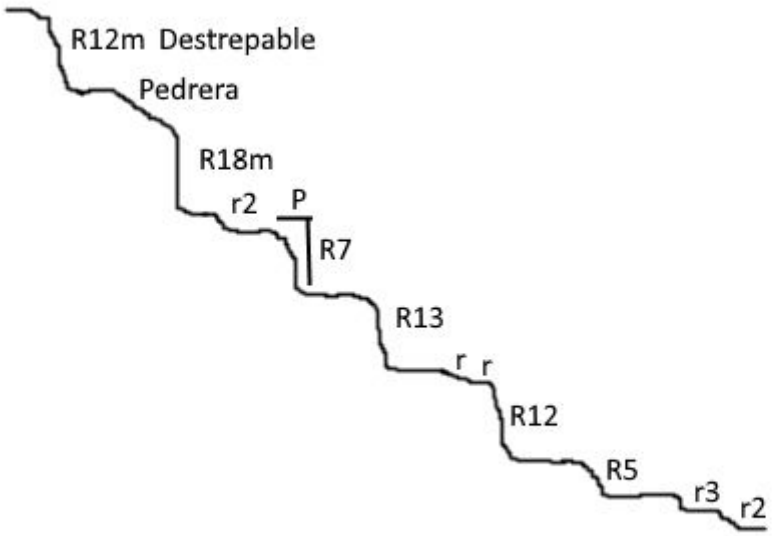

Return: (machine translated)
After finishing we can turn right and go towards the Peña Campanario ravine or go down through brambles towards the road that leads to the cattle farm.
