Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Beautiful waterfall that is usually visited from the sea by numerous boats and kayaks. A single rappel that will leave us in the water, from where we will have to swim back.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We will follow the signs "Playa", go down the main street (there is a parking lot if we do not want to play), we will continue and after the left curve in the greenhouses, we will have a street on the right with the sign "Playa de la Caleta", only for authorized vehicles. We park

Approach: (machine translated)
We will go down this street, when it takes us to the right towards the beach, we will continue straight ahead towards the cliffs, the track turns to the left and when it approaches a hut we will get into the riverbed above the hut.

Tour: (machine translated)
An abseil over the sea

Return: (machine translated)
We swam out to the Caleta beach and went up the access road to the beach.
