Summary:

(machine translated)
Not far from Mylon Canyon is another dry canyon, which is used by Greek canyonists mainly for training purposes. Easy to connect with the neighboring canyon.

Hydrology:

Access:

(machine translated)
From the Mylon exit parking lot, continue north along the coastal road for about 8 km until you reach Schinos. There we park the car at the location marked on the map.

Approach:

(machine translated)
The access is on the orographic right flank of the canyon on a pleasant path, see <https://www.wikiloc.com/canyoneering-trails/korinthia-geraneia-pharaggi-gerakinas-42443149>. It is therefore not very useful to do it the way suggested in Van Den Berge's book.

Tour:

See gallery and video.

Return:

(machine translated)
At the exit of the canyon, turn right as soon as possible and follow a path to the road where the car is parked.
