Summary: (machine translated)

Not far from Mylon Canyon is another dry canyon, which is used by Greek canyonists mainly for training purposes. Easy to connect with the neighboring canyon.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)

From the Mylon exit parking lot, continue north along the coastal road for about 8 km until you reach Schinos. There we park the car at the location marked on the map.

Approach: (machine translated)

The access is on the orographic right flank of the canyon on a pleasant path, see <https://www.wikiloc.com/canyoneering-trails/korinthia-geraneia-pharaggi-gerakinas-42443149> . It is therefore not very useful to do it the way suggested in Van Den Berge's book.

Tour: (machine translated)

See gallery and video.

Return: (machine translated)

At the exit of the canyon, turn right as soon as possible and follow a path to the road where the car is parked.
