Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Upper part of the Pas de l'Escalell ravine, overshadowed by its low flow and its big brother, it is a small ravine with two impressive gorges. Perfect to do when Escalell is very strong or to extend the day.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
By the C16 we will arrive at Berga and after passing the tunnel we will take the C26 to Vilada.
Almost leaving the village we will see a detour to the left to Sant Romà de la Clusa. We will continue straight on along this track and we will arrive at the ravine, which we will cross by its orographic right, just when we pass its entrance we will arrive at a meadow with a picnic area where we will park.

Approach: (machine translated)
Access Escalell and Escalelló (Escalell Sup)
By the track on the right, next to El Clot, after 500m curve right and left and right there a track in disuse on the left, we take it. We get into the forest, uphill to pass next to the rocky outcrops. After passing them we reach the track that would take us to Rossinyol, 50m later, in the right curve we can continue straight ahead following the light turrets.

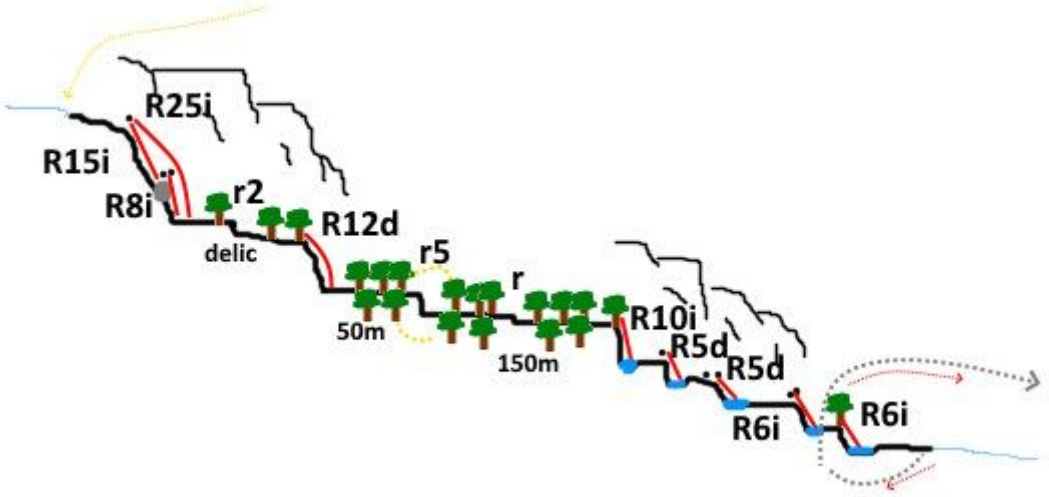

Tour: (machine translated)
Two beautiful gorges where we find the rappels. Very slippery if we find it with water, although in the first gorge is difficult unless generous rains, from the forest begins to take little by little flow.

Return: (machine translated)
We will take the path on the left to the access road, next to the car.
