Summary: (machine translated)
This canyon should be done in the rainy season to ensure good flow, in summer we can find it dry or with a thread. La Fervenza de Torez will not disappoint us.
Recommended combination of cars

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We have to get to Valadouro
We will go south on the LU-P-0101 towards O Cadramón, at the height of p.k. 31 we have a bridge over our stream. 31 we have the bridge over our stream, a few meters before on the left is A Casanova and at the same point a track on the right uphill, 300m further a track on the left, here we park the car back or if we do not want to make combination of cars.
With the access car we return to the road, after 600m we turn right to As Casas de Abaixo and Alvite, after 300m we turn right to Sixto and Casa Tellada, after 100m we turn right and continue to Casa Tellada, we leave these houses behind and continue to Esqueira. Here once again to the right along a forest track towards the stream, we park a few meters further on, near the stream.

Approach: (machine translated)
We will follow the track to the creek

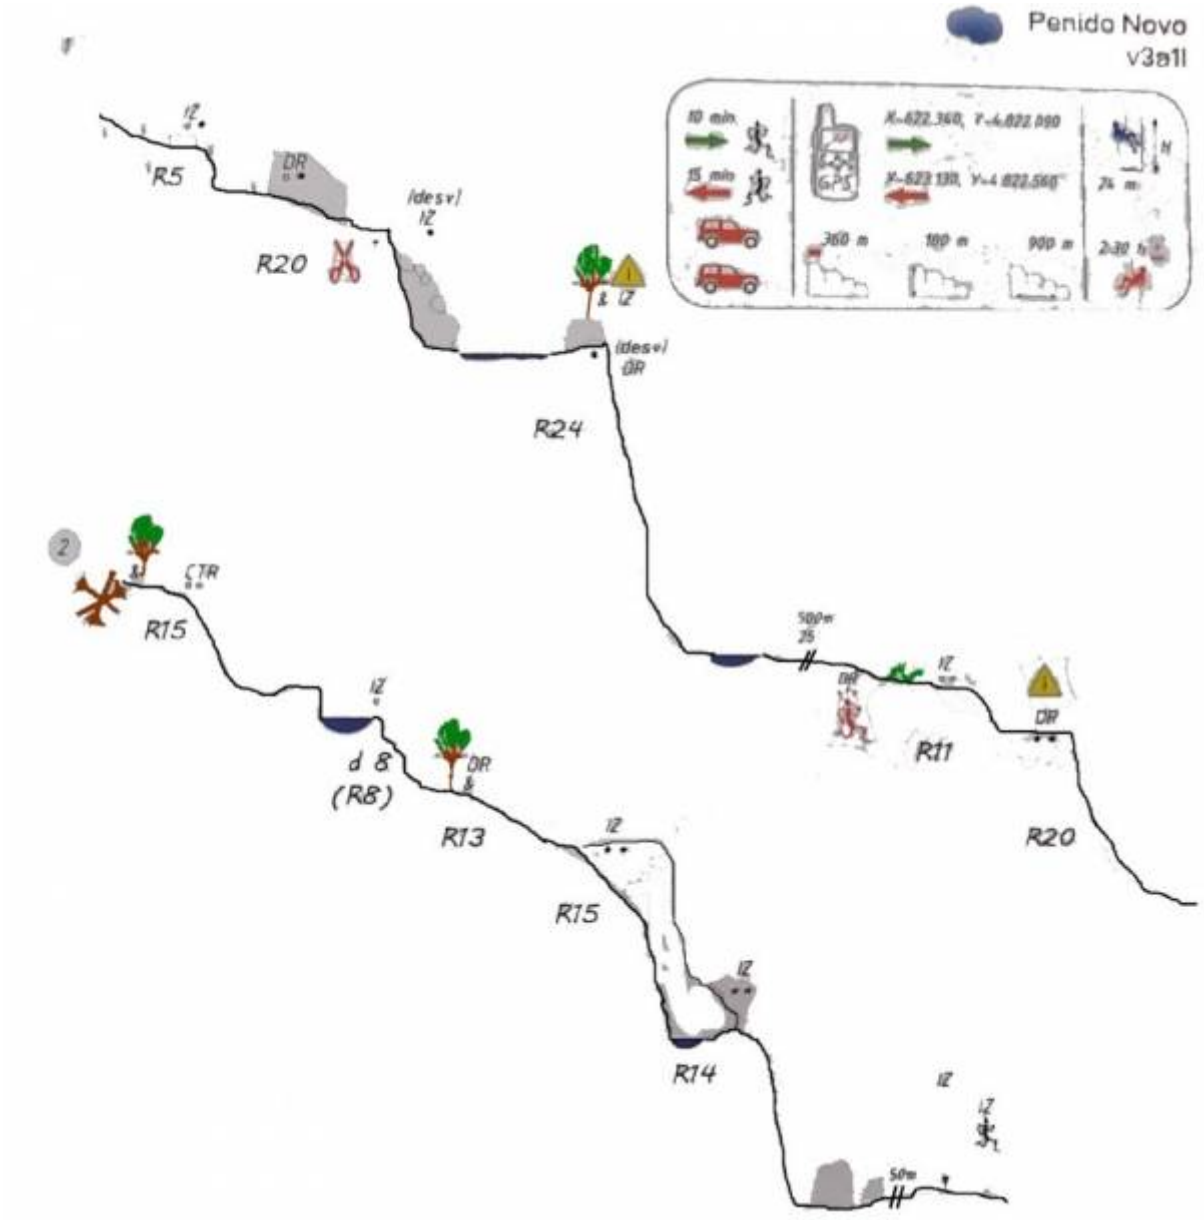

Tour: (machine translated)
See mole

Return: (machine translated)
After the last rappel we turn left down the slope to the remains of a track, from there to our track and the car.
