Summary: (machine translated)
Nice aquatic canyon with two parts, a first one very sporty, continuous jumps, dexterity and slides. Finally a more technical part with several rappels in which to practice our good handling with the ropes.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We are in Mondoñedo on the A8, we take the N634 and at the access to the north of Mondoñedo we take the LU160 towards Ferreira (north). As soon as we take it, we turn right to Coto da Recadeira and in the first street we turn right to pass over the road towards Seivane. About 100m before reaching this village, a paved road goes off to the right that goes up through the woods to the Atalaya, with the Tronceda river channel on our right. From this detour it is almost 4kms to a track that goes down to our right to a small hydroelectric plant, we will go down to it and park the access car.
The return car is easier to locate, we must reach the Recreational Area of Fervenza. In Recadeira, in the LU160, almost in the p.k. 2 we have the detour to the left that takes us to the area, we will park there.

Approach: (machine translated)
Immediately from the power plant, go down to the river.

Tour: (machine translated)
See sketch
After the first sector, we go out by the central one to the left to the track that is a few meters above and we follow it almost until the recreational area. Here we can rappel the two small waterfalls in the second sector.

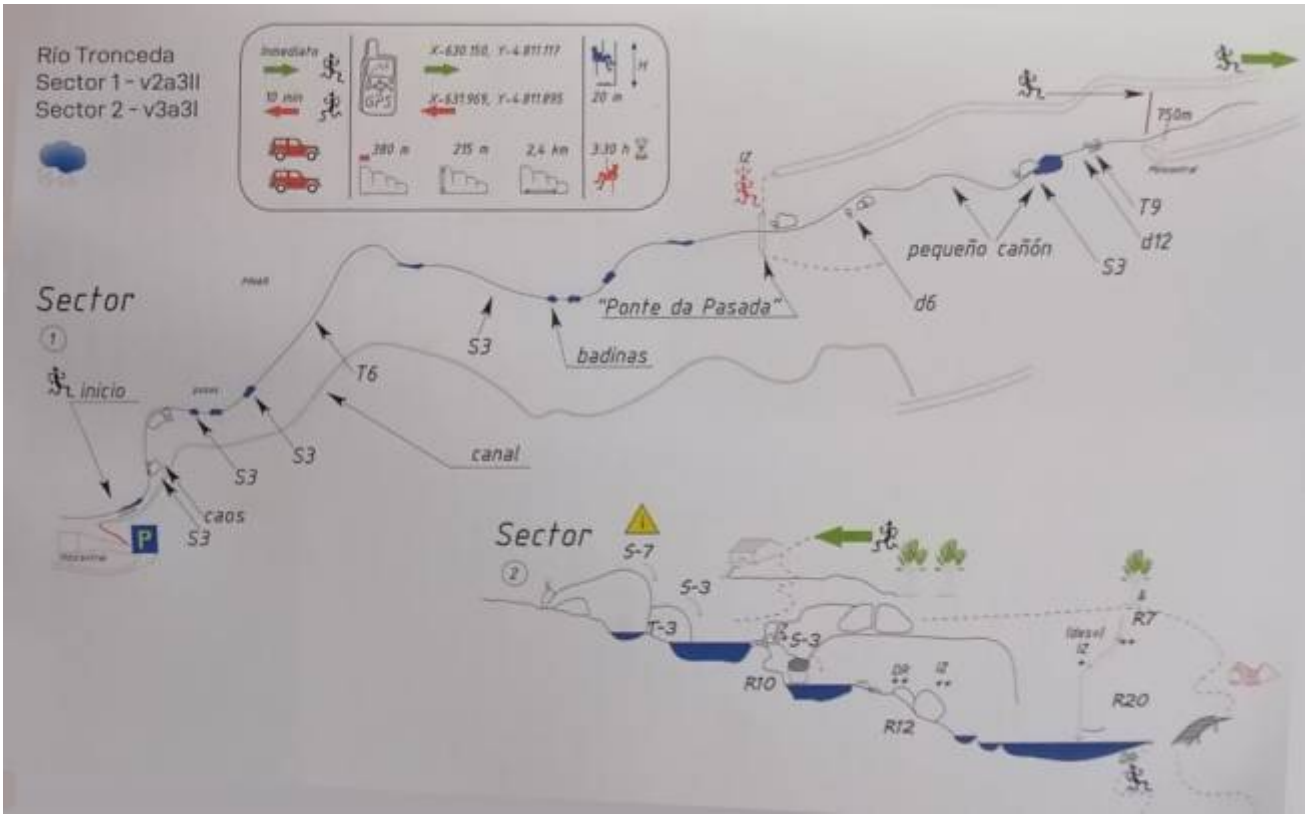

Return: (machine translated)
We go out on the right to the bridge that is
