Summary: (machine translated)
Simple gorge with good flow in spring.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From La Seu d'Urgell or from Sant Llorenç de Morunys on the C-462.
At p.k. 65 we have the detour to Sisquer, we will go down this road, we will pass the village and after 300m there is a track on the left that goes down to Sant Julià dels Garrics, we will take it until just before crossing the river Bona, about 100m before. At this point there is a track to the right that goes up the river almost 200m until just before crossing it. Here we park the return car.
With the access car we will return to the coll de Bancs where we will park.

Approach: (machine translated)
A track goes off in the direction of Seu d'Urgell for a little more than a kilometer until a sharp turn to the right where a path goes down a stream to the river Bona, we cross it by a footbridge to take a path along the orographic right of the river until it ends and we have to enter the river.

Tour: (machine translated)
Very simple, only two rappels and several adventures in this almost aquatic trekking.

Return: (machine translated)
After the last rappel we will have on our right the Torrent del Coll de Bataller, here we will turn right to a path, the rest of an old track that we will follow until it crosses the river and leaves us in the parking place.
