Rappel canyon, dry

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Ribeira Grande on the road to Porto Novo about 5 km winding uphill. We pass the houses of the hamlet of Estraga and after a right-left bend to the left of the road we see a detached house on a small ridge. The pick-up point is located deep down in the Ribeira de Torre. From the southern end of Rib. Grande one drives first into the streambed of the Rib. de Torre and then 2.5 km in the valley further to the south. In a long left turn around the Tope Miranda, a few meters before the houses of Longueira is at a (well) shaft the pick-up point. The exit of the Peregrina canyon is clearly visible.

Approach: (machine translated)
Pass the said cottage on the left, down the grassy ridge and then rope into the right ditch from a cypress(?) tree.

Tour: (machine translated)
Largely open canyon with a total of 17 rappels

Return: (machine translated)
At the exit of the canyon in the choppy streambed or right next to it down to the road.
