Summary: (machine translated)
Beautiful canyon, generally dry, with well formed rappels of up to 40m. Beautiful surroundings and unbeatable access by the letter carrier's path. Two activities in one if it were not for the prohibition to descend this canyon.
We could do a combination of cars from Casielles

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
In the area of Ponga on the N625 between Riaño and Cangas de Onís.
At p.k. 133.8 we have a lay-by on the road to leave the car, the letter carrier's path is 100m further on towards Casielles.
If we have access car we will continue south passing by the entrance of the letter carrier's path until almost the kilometer 131 at the bridge over the Sella, we have the detour to Casielles and Viboli. We will go up to Casiellese and park.

Approach: (machine translated)
If we go along the letter carrier's path, which is marked as PR, we will go up the slope almost to Biamón, we will see the riverbed on our left and we will go to it.
From Casielles we take the track that goes to Biamón and when we get there we turn right to the riverbed.

Tour: (machine translated)
Forbidden.
Well formed, some nice narrows, a gorge, generally dry, perfect for rainy days.

Return: (machine translated)
When we reach the road, we will turn left until we reach the lay-by.
