Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Simple canyon, for beginners, it does load a lot with heavy rains. Dry except after rains, we will always find some water in the pools. Nice, to combine with Portilla

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
Leaving Villalba de la Sierra on the CU-V-9114 we reach the village of Portilla, shortly before at p.k 5, after crossing the river Villalbilla we have a track on the right, we get in and after 200m turns left to get into the Hoz del Moro, we leave aside tracks to the right and 200m later we have a fork. To the left we would go to Portilla to the right towards the exit of the ravine, here we leave the return car or if we only have one vehicle.
With the access car we return to the road and reach the village of Portilla, we will get into the first street on the right and go up to a track that goes east, we can go up with the car to a sharp left turn and park.

Approach: (machine translated)
From the steep turn a path heading SE that goes into the Hoz del Moro ravine, we follow it and go up the ravine with good views from the trail to almost the Fuente del Callejón.

Tour: (machine translated)
See mole

Return: (machine translated)
We follow the riverbed until the riverbed opens up and we go out to the right to take the track where we have parked.
