Access: (machine translated)
We will be located in Chacín.
Chacín ravine
We approach until Chacín, once here we leave a car in the chapel of San Paio (end of the ravine) by the DC3404 and the other at the beginning. For this we go to the village of Gosolfre where we will park.

Approach: (machine translated)
Accesses Bcos Gosolfre, Fontiñas and Bao da Casa
We continue through the village leaving behind an agricultural warehouse, soon we reach the river Gosolfre, we continue along it until we find a place to cross it and a small path on the other side that goes into the forest. Continue along this path for about 5 minutes until you reach the next Fontiñas stream, continue for another 5 minutes until you find some abandoned mills and a river of more entity, ours.

Tour: (machine translated)
The first part in the area of the mills is very quiet, with cliffs and slides that we can avoid. Then the ravine is taking entity and height to reach the final R20 where we can have overflows with high flow.

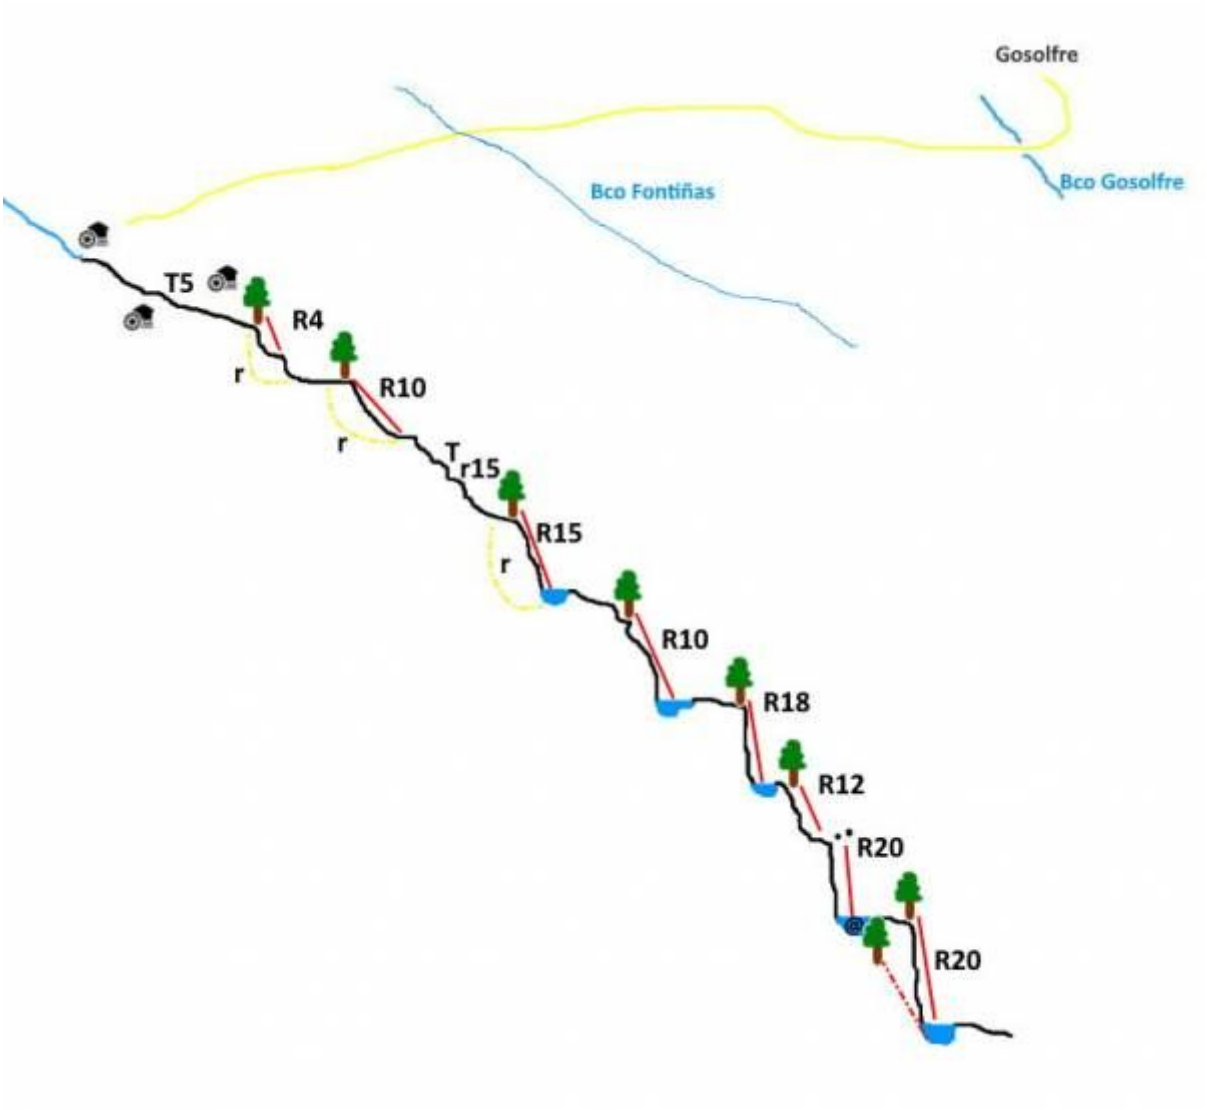

Return: (machine translated)
We will arrive at the confluence of ravines, from here by the path to the orographic right to go down to the chapel of San Paio.
