We hiked the canyon today. It's definitely worth it to hike from Raton. It's a 40-minute walk from the Raton parking lot to the entry. We walked to the entry from Raton and then hiked uphill along the opposite slope over the ridge for about 20 minutes. All the belay stations are fine—mostly single hooks. We made good time and it took us 45 minutes to reach Raton. This route is definitely worth it. The canyon is narrow in places with some very beautiful sections. (machine translated)
