Access:

Approach: (machine translated)
From the parking lot at the bridge in Titele, head south past an overpass and three tunnels. After the bend to the right, you will see the last descent of the Colaz (approx. 10 meters).
Cross the Mis stream and follow the path uphill on the left bank of the Colaz. Cross the Colaz (intermediate entry and exit) and climb up the steep switchbacks on the right bank past numerous military bivouacs. Leave the path at 900 meters and climb through pine forests up to 940 meters. There you will find some trees from where the descent begins.

Tour: (machine translated)
At 940 meters above sea level, you have the option of rappelling from a tree on the right bank.
