Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Also known as Los Frateli, it is a fun descent of 15 simple rappels, numerous slides and beautiful rock formations, access is somewhat complicated when the track is not fixed.
Although it is in a protected area until now no permit was required, anyway it is not bad to inquire at the cabildo.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We have to take the TF28 in Villa de Arico.
On the TF28 to go to Villa de Arico, at the first traffic circle turn right up towards El Contador. Follow Calle el Calvario, and from there all the way up following the signs to the recreational area El Contador until the climbing area of the bridge, where we leave the return vehicle.
With the access vehicle, if we have it, we will continue climbing up to El Contador.

Approach: (machine translated)
We continue along the dirt track towards the houses until we reach the PR TF-86.2, Arico Nuevo - Lomo de Tamadaya. We cross the bed of the Madre del Agua ravine after 300m and come out onto a track, where we turn right. Soon we will arrive at our riverbed

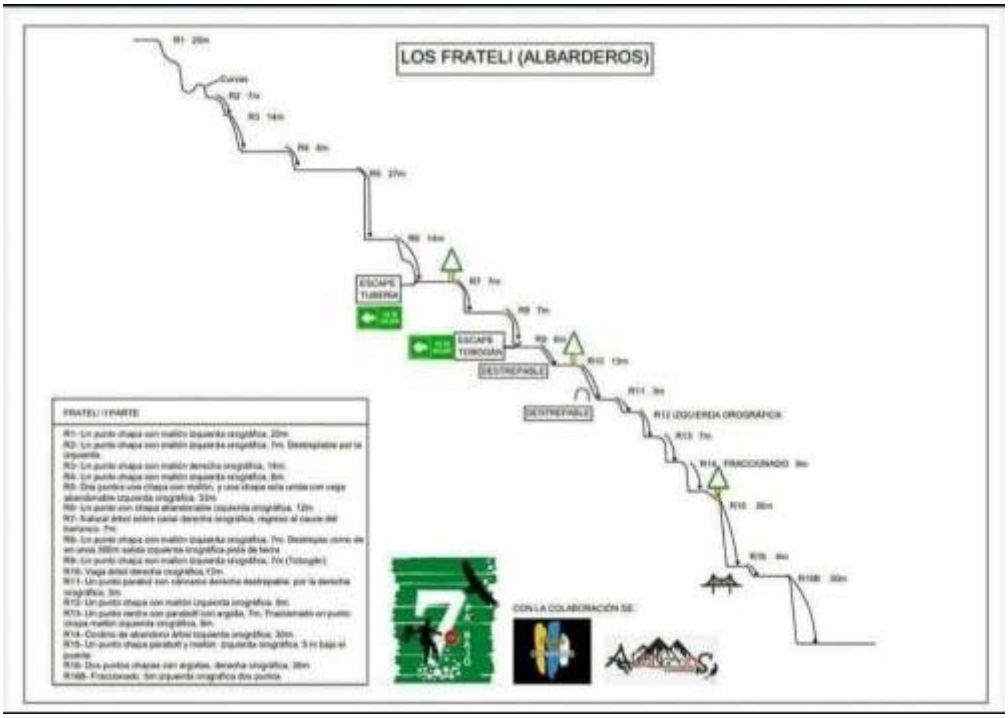

Tour: (machine translated)
See mole

Return: (machine translated)
We will continue our descent to the bridge
