Summary: (machine translated) hiking canyon with some rappels, varied, with grotto

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Seu d'Urgell on the C-14 we drive 37.7 km in the direction of Lerida and then about 2.5 km before Oliana we turn right and drive on the LV-5118 in the direction of Peramola. After 3.1 km we turn right and drive 1.2 km up to the Hostal del Boix (Can Boix de Peramola). A little below the hotel complex we find space for our car.

Approach: (machine translated)
We take the path behind the hotel that goes to the left towards Roca del Corb (signpost). At an altitude of about 800 m, we meet a dirt road that we follow to the right (N). At the forks, keep to the right ("Roca del Corb", walk below the church of Sant Salvador del Corb and go around the mountain in an arc to the left. Immediately thereafter, it describes a right-hand bend Quite at its exit, we look for a path to the right down into the basin of Barranc Rumbau.

Tour: (machine translated)
We hike, rappel 3-5 times, cross a grotto with a spring and finally exit to the left onto the path that accompanies the stream here.
Alternatively, we can also continue the descent in the Rumbau and only get out onto the path later.

Return: (machine translated)
On the way down to the hotel and the car.
