Summary: (machine translated)
Long ravine, with 16 rappels and, generally, with little water except during the rainy season. Next to the Puerto del Escudo, with a very wooded environment.
In the two long waterfalls there are loose sheets. Caution!

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We are on the N623 between Torrelavega and Puerto del Escudo.
At pk 99 is the village of Bollacín and just at the exit we can park on the right, next to some cabins, the return car. With the other car we continue one kilometer along the road until we find a piece of the old road on our right, a place to park.

Approach: (machine translated)
We will leave by the track that starts right there and that goes up the slope. Once we reach the top of the hill, on the other side we have the basin of our ravine, we just have to find the best way down.

Tour: (machine translated)
Descent with lots of vegetation, moss on the rocks, ... very aesthetic, with some interesting rappels but with little flow.

Return: (machine translated)
After the last rappel, an arrow and a milestone on a rock indicate a path to the right that leads to where we have parked.
