Canyon can be considered V3A1II. Passes for the most part next to a path, so very easy to escape. Long approach (1h30 without shuttle) but straightforward path until the start. Starts with the longest rappels (max 40m), fairly open canyon and often not much water. In summer you can find people bathing easily. A few waterfalls without bolts in the lower part, can often be done free (or you can use trees). The end is after a vague narrow part, without bolts, after that there is nothing interesting. Exit with large path on the right bank, 30 minutes to the town.
