Access: (machine translated)
From Gonnosfaniga we take Via Pietro Bonelli and follow the sign "Santa Severa". At the chapel we take the road that runs first uin northwestern direction. After 950m we take the dirt road to the hamlet of Togoro. !,3 km after that we come to a junction where we turn right. Another 2.5 km further on a dirt road goes off to the left. Here we park the car.

Approach: (machine translated)
We take the mule track on the left. It leads us - past a ruined house - into the streambed of Gutturu Fenugu. We cross the stream and follow the tracks on the other bank uphill - see in detail the GPS points in http://www.verticalsulcis.it/Outdoor/CanaleDeUrgua/RelazioneCanaleDeUrgua.pdf (page 3,4, "Avvincamento").

Tour: (machine translated)
* http://www.verticalsulcis.it/Outdoor/CanaleDeUrgua/RelazioneCanaleDeUrgua.pdf (page 5, "Discesa). The C50 can be broken: 25/20

Return: (machine translated)
A few meters after the Canale de Urgua joins the Gutturu Fenugu, the canyon widens and a small forest covers the bottom. Here, on the left side of the stream, a clearly visible mule track begins to lead out to the access road. This is reached by the car.

I only examined the last section near the exit; the canyon seems very beautiful, but is currently just a trickle with very dark, stagnant and warm pools of water.
