Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Only suitable as an introductory or practice canyon or as an alternative ascent to the swimming pool at the exit of the Balzes Oscuros.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)

Approach: (machine translated)
The canyon begins on the ledge below the area where we left the car. In order to reach this ledge, we go without a path along the edge of the slope on the left (direction NE) slightly downhill until we can turn right onto the said ledge. On this ledge now again in southern direction. The first two chutes that now descend on the left are branches of the Barranco Estrecho, the next chute would be the Barranco Fontaneta. The terrain is confusing, so some orientation and tracking sense is needed. Both canyons join the Rio Isuala (at the beginning of the Balcés Estrechos). We now go to the entry of the left branch of Barranco Estrecho.

Tour: (machine translated)
3 sloping ropes, in between easy downclimb. We reach the ditch descending from the left (N) and here we can either go immediately in a northeasterly direction to the way back or first walk behind to the swimming pool at the exit of the Balcez Oscuros.

Return: (machine translated)
First the same way back as from the Oscuros de Balcez, namely in northern direction uphill. We come to the dirt road and follow it to the left to the car.
