Summary: (machine translated)
Under a small dam appears this short but beautiful descent, simple, perfect for beginners as long as the flow is adequate, it usually sins more by defect than by excess, since almost all the flow of the stream stays in the dam and is diverted.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
Situated in the Ribeira Sacra, we must focus on Nogueira de Ramuín (Luíntra).
From there we will leave by the OU-0508, towards the monastery of Santo Estevo and its parador, after 5kms we will pass it, we leave it on the left. We follow the road to Loureiro and we turn left (detour to the San Esteban waterfall and the pier). We leave behind the chapel and soon we arrive at the reservoir that we also leave on the left, a few meters further a track on the left where we can park the access car (if we have 2 vehicles).
With a single vehicle or with the return, we continue 2km along the road making a very tight left hairpin and in a right curve reaches our stream, a few meters later we have the detour to the right to the pier a small area where we can park.

Approach: (machine translated)
With a single car we will have to climb the 2kms up the road.
With two cars the access is immediate

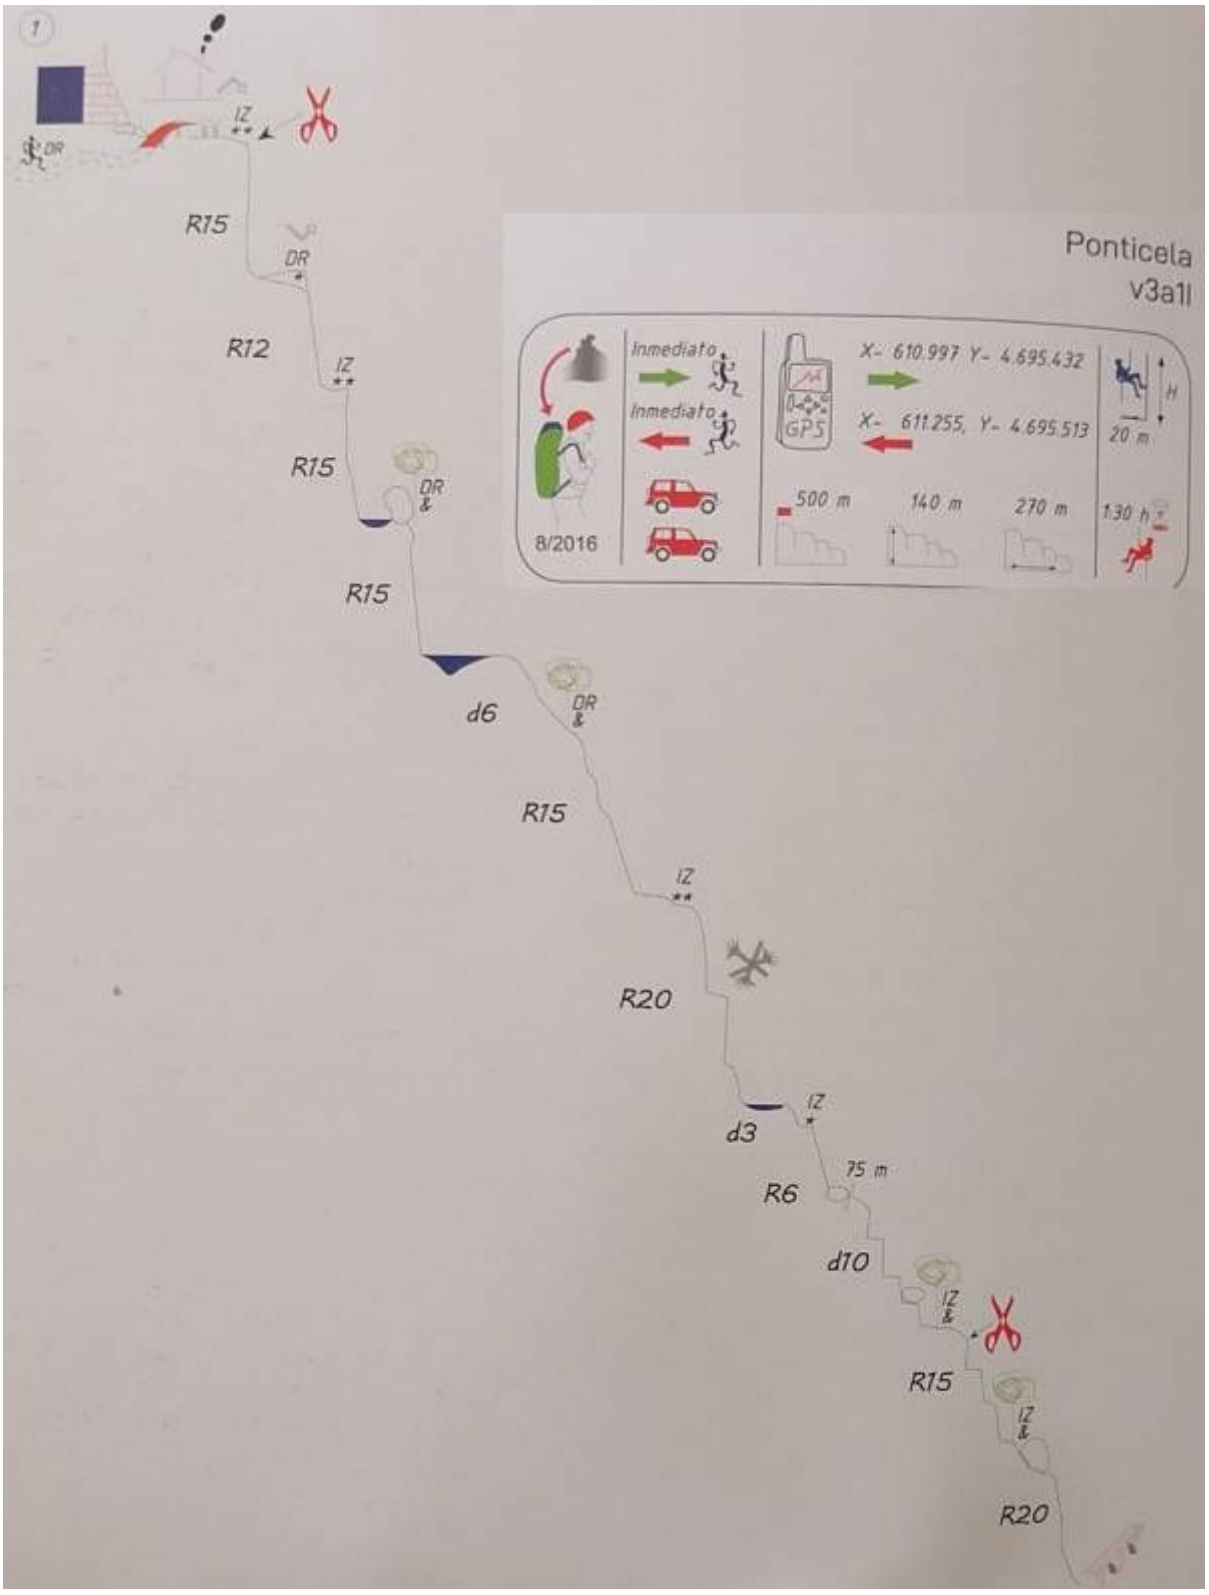

Tour: (machine translated)
See mole

Return: (machine translated)
When we reached the road, we left
