Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Small torrent, generally dry next to Gorges del Tec, if we catch it with water can be an entertaining descent thanks to its last abseil of 35m over the covacho of Sallent.
The pruning shears will be necessary to clean a little and check facilities.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Sant Llorenç de Morunys take the LV-4241 road, towards Berga. Just after passing the bridge of Llinars, we will take the asphalted track on our left, we will pass the camping d'aigua d'ora and a bridge, until we reach the farmhouse of Sorribes, which will be on our right.

Approach: (machine translated)
In front of the farmhouse, the same path that would take us up to the Gorgas del Tec, before the end of the track, in front of the last house, there is a kind of path on the left that goes up the slope steeply up to the upper track. We will take the track to the right, heads north in a moment (500m) crosses our ravine at its access point.

Tour: (machine translated)
Quite dressed not to have large flows or people who frequent it, the most remarkable is its final abseil of 35m over the Balma de Sallent.

Return: (machine translated)
We arrive at the access path to the Gorgas del Tec, we take it to the right and soon we arrive at the car.
