Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Long, gloomy, secluded and spartanly furnished. Unfortunately, long stretches are either dry or completely covered in lice and therefore not worthwhile.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Bled, follow road 209 until about one kilometer before Bohinjska Bistrica, then turn right onto the road towards Jereka. Just before the village, turn left towards Srdenja vas v Bohinju.
Parking exit: Immediately before the bridge over the Ribnica, turn right upstream on a narrow road until you reach a larger parking lot above a torrent embankment (last gravel road)
Parking entry: Access to the bridge over the Ribnica is possible via Srdenja vas or via Jereka (large parking lot a little east of this bridge)

Approach: (machine translated)
Enter directly under the bridge

Tour: (machine translated)
The tour from the very top is not worthwhile due to extreme capping and lack of water (which is a pity, because the gorge would otherwise be very impressive). However, you could walk only the lowest part - from the lower parking lot follow the marked path to the second waterfall, then ascend via climbing tracks on the orographic left bank to above the escarpment and enter at a small diving pool: A short tour with a jump, several slides and 2 waterfalls of about 20m height.

Return: (machine translated)
Along the trail back to the parking lot below the canyon.
