Access: (machine translated)

See photo gallery: approach from Rome, Frosinone, Cassino and shuttle P2 (exit) - P1 (access)

Approach: (machine translated)

From the P1 parking lot, continue south along the road. Next path on the right - "Sentiero WWF" -, at its junction turn right again. Then there is the possibility to make a short detour north to a viewpoint near a small house.

Return and continue on the "Sentiero WWF" until it crosses the streambed (entry).\n *

Tour: (machine translated)

First in the open streambed until the beginning of the gorge. Then succession of several rappels (first some smaller ones, then 27, 38, 7, 26, 7) until the Gole del Quirino enters from the left. Before the dam, where a foul-smelling tributary comes from the right, exit to the right. \nA continuation of the walk below the dam, under the road bridge, to the end of the gorge with subsequent exit to the right would be possible for those who are not sensitive to smells.\n

Return: (machine translated)

We look for the path here on the right edge of the dam wall, which leads us up to parking lot P2.\n *
