Summary: (machine translated)
Dry ravine also known as Barranc de la Tenalla after the name of the forest house. Neighbor of the Preseger and Salt del Robert. Best avoided on hot days

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We will have to go to La Sénia by the CV105 towards Fredes, when crossing the bridge of the reservoir of Ulldecona, we will see a track on the right by which we will go up with the car. After passing the tail of the reservoir we will have a fork, on the right the Bco de Fou, we will continue on the left.
We will continue along the track almost to the end, parking at the forest house of Tenalla.

Approach: (machine translated)
Same access as for Presseger. We will leave by the track by which we accessed and after 300m the track crosses to the other side, 500m later we will have a path on the right that goes up to Mas del Paraire through the cliffs. Once in the Mas we take the track north to the Tosal de Cervera until we cross a stream, here we will go down the riverbed until we find the first rappel.

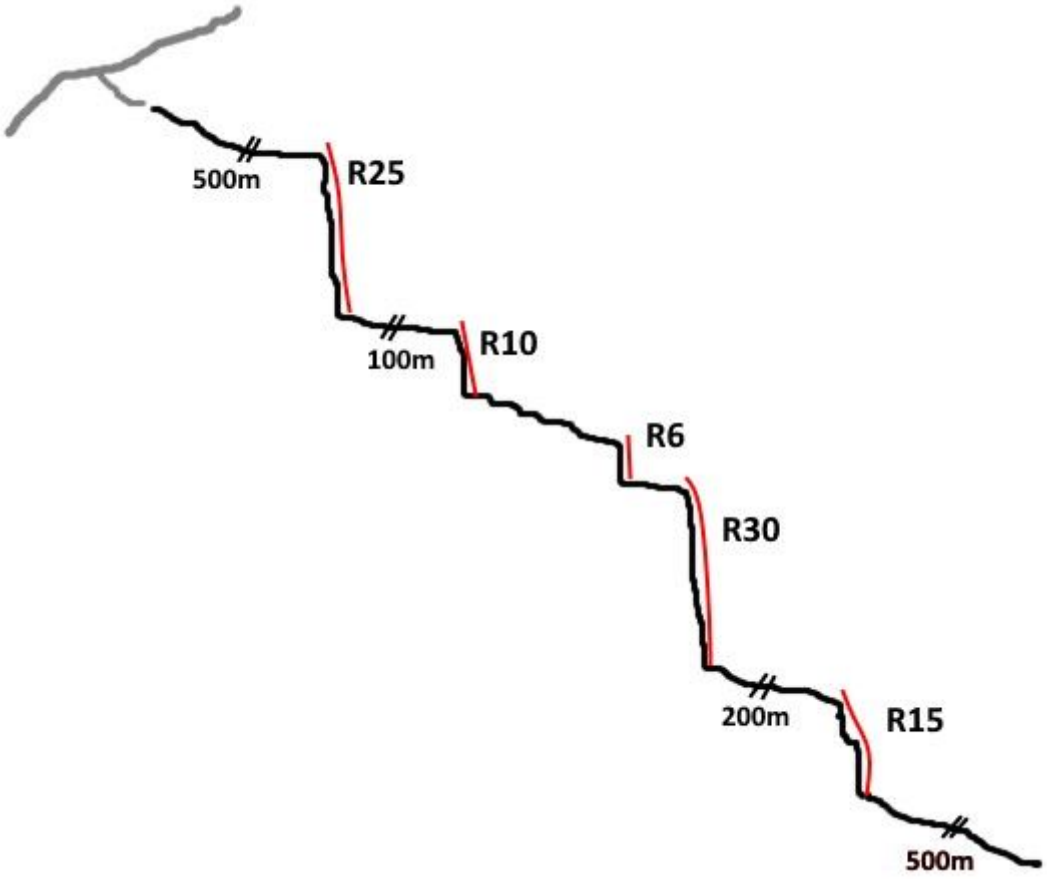

Tour: (machine translated)
Descent without too much difficulty

Return: (machine translated)
At the Salt ravine, turn right to go up to the forest house.
