Hydrology:

Access:
Traveling along the Val Serra state road from Terni, past an abandoned building on the right, you'll see a dirt road/clearing on the right just after the blind curve (EXIT: leave the first car here or follow the dirt road to an overpass. Park 1-2 cars max there). Continuing on the state road, just past the turnoff for Acquapalombo (keep right), you'll see a large clearing on the right with an attached cat house; park there (ENTRANCE).

Approach:
The stream is clearly visible alongside the state road. Following the short path through the woods (marked in red), veering to the right you'll come to a stone step (also marked), finally reaching the stream.

Tour:

Return:
Exit: Cross the river and turn left until you reach a bridge. Climb up the wall to the right before the bridge. Follow the railway to a road bridge. Exit to the right and cross the bridge (the bridge is the entrance to the via ferrata, located a little further downstream). Follow the dirt road uphill until you reach the car parked first.
