Summary:
The Bavick Waterfalls are a fun and easy canyon, situated just a stone’s throw from Creif. It features a few fun, low-angle descents, a splash jump and miles of fun slides. It is undeservedly underrated, but that is precisely why it retains a lovely, unspoilt character. Its short length and easy nature make it a great option for beginners or for a post-work outing.

Hydrology:
Dangerous swing on the second pitch, the obvious line is on TL however when you get close to the pool, there is a high chance of swinging in to the rock on TR. Advice is to keep TR in the flow until a deviation or alternative anchor is placed.
