Summary: (machine translated)
Dry ravine except after rains

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We must be located on the C14 between Organyà and Seu d'Urgell.
Before leaving Organyà we will have the detour to Figols on the right, follow the road to Figols, cross the village and cross the bridge over the Figols river. Just to the right there is an esplanade for parking.

Approach: (machine translated)
In front of us there is a track that goes up and around the Roca del Bosc, we will arrive at a small hill from where we will see the Torrent de Tines below. We will go halfway up the slope without a path to the riverbed.

Tour: (machine translated)
Very excavated and very continuous ravine in which we will save all the slope in 7 rappels almost linked. Beware of the pools if the water is rotten, you can avoid them all.

Return: (machine translated)
After the last rappel, we turn left and look for a path that leads us to the left to a track that brings us closer to the parking lot.
