Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Initiation canyon, simple and without too much flow. If we want to enjoy it more, it is better to do it during the rainy season. Rappels arrampados and not too long.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
In Aveiro, take the N224 to Arouca or the N225 to Alvarenga.
We take the R326-1 and then turn to the M505 to Canelas. Arriving at the village we turn off to the river beach of Vau. We will park down there

Approach: (machine translated)
We go straight ahead towards the footbridges and the bar. Arriving at the bar we turn right up the stream (which stays on our left), 50m from the bar, the trail turns right, we continue to the left and soon, the climb ends and we throw ourselves into the riverbed.

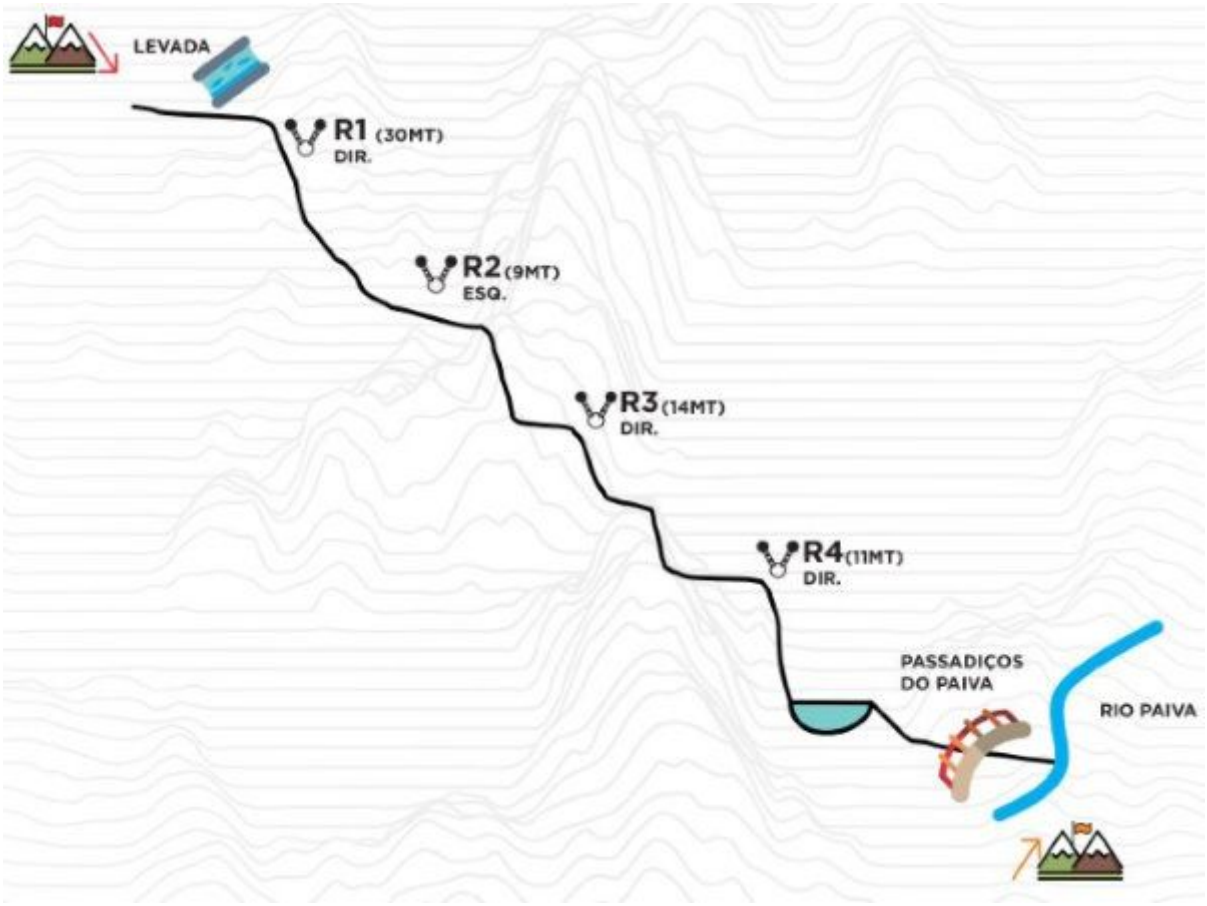

Tour: (machine translated)
See mole

Return: (machine translated)
When we reach the river beach, we turn left under the footbridges to go back up to the parking lot.
