Specialities:

Gear:
Ropes: 1×50

Summary:
Main highlights are the high viaduct and the possibility to combine with rockclimbing (25m. max). Not the best bolting in the canyon and lots of vegetation. Short version is possible with one car, return via the camino real. Lower than this are 2 higher abseils and a long walk-out (machete recommended) and 2 cars + bigger ropes would be needed.

Hydrology:

Access:
El Frontón or by the main road tf-28

Approach:
If parked in El Frontón, we walk gently up through the village with good views of the canyon on our right (don't go down yet) a little further up the road we take right, the road turns into a dirttrack, along some agricultural settings before we take a last, steep right and make our way gently into the river bed of the canyon.

Tour:
Ver topo

Return:
Either park in El Frontón village or by the main road / old Camino Real at the exit.
