Specialities:

Gear:
Ropes: 2x90

Summary: (machine translated)
Not worthwhile, thorny dry gorge without anchors, tree abseils up to 80m

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
Very small parking facilities on the road to Nocelle.

Approach: (machine translated)
Leave your car in the parking lot (or wherever you can park, given the absolute shortage of parking spaces on the coast) and take the uphill path, which you follow without difficulty to a forest hut (Caserma forestale 723m). Along the way you have an extraordinary panorama of Positano.

At the refuge, turn left into the valley of our stream.

Tour: (machine translated)
The route is characterized by high rappels on natural fixed points (there is no shortage of trees).
The sequence is 25mt
15mt
5mt
25mt
10mt
8mt
30mt
90mt (split: relay 10mt + 80mt)
20mt
30mt
at this point you meet a path that points to the left of the old path, completely overgrown with brambles and not passable, so continue in the overgrown streambed
15mt
here you reach a step of an aqueduct, but again it is impossible to follow the path as it is impassable, continue with the last waterfall
30mt
after the rappel, go all the way to the right to cross a ledge that eventually leads to a path.
