Summary: (machine translated)
Dry ravine except after heavy rains. Quite vertical, open and with great views

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
Fenollet East and West
We will go to the town of Organyà by the C14.
Fenollet East and West
Once in Organyà, direction Seu d'Urgell, in the center of the village before the right curve we have a detour to the left to Cabó. We go through here. At the exit of the village, at about 500m we will have a detour to the left to Font Bordonera/Fenollet/... we will take it and we will arrive to the village of Fenollet.
Just in Fenollet we will park

Approach: (machine translated)
Fenollet East and West
We will leave by the road up to a track on the right that takes us to a reservoir. From the reservoir there is a pipe up the slope towards the font Fenollet (the west ravine) when we get here we will turn right, almost north direction looking for the marks to avoid these cliffs that lead us to the top. Once up we will see a track, we take it and continue about 100m to go around the entrance to the Grau de Fenollet to its west entrance.

Tour: (machine translated)
Nice canyon without water but continuous in its succession of rappels, great views to the south and some ungraceful cliffs.

Return: (machine translated)
After finishing the last rappel, we will exit to the left to the access path.
