Specialities:

Gear:
Ropes: 2x 85m

Summary: (machine translated)
Beautiful sequence of steep verticals, the most beautiful being the last one at 85 m (with RG equipment)

Hydrology: (machine translated)
No escape, unless it was like in the movie "Mission"...

The canyon is always dry (except during cyclones). No stagnant water or traps... Remember to wet your ropes beforehand!

Access: (machine translated)
Leave your car at the start of the Dassy hiking trail, which leads from the exit of the arm of the Plaine up to the Bras de Pontho road (D 27).

Approach: (machine translated)
From the parking lot in front of the stadium in the village of Bras de Pontho, cross the bridge over the canyon and walk slightly down to the left.

Tour: (machine translated)
Nice sequence of steep verticals, the most beautiful being the last one at 85 m (with RG gear). The equipment is quite uneven... it ranges from chain belays to crappy single point belays! Take something with you to change ropes and carabiners.

Not much shade in summer... Very nice arrival in the arm of the Plaine.

Return: (machine translated)
After arriving at the arm of the Plaine, walk down it to the metal bridge and climb back up via the Dassy path.
