Approach: (machine translated)
From the Cascada Escalera, take the dirt road that continues. This exits at a residential house. Continue on a path that meets the path marked on ropewiki (ropewiki has a different parking lot and thus a partially different access). Continue on the ropewiki path to the entry point.

Tour: (machine translated)
Sequence of rappels, see video and photos. We path out of the stream earlier than planned on ropewiki.

Return: (machine translated)
On the left, a clear track leads onto the embankment and further on until we reach the ropewiki path. However, do not turn left on this path, but right across the stream and up to our access path. Turn left here back to the car.
