Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Canal equipped on the north face of Peñagalera with a split R70 that will delight the most demanding climbers due to its delicate splitting (only for experienced people). It is better to combine vehicles. It is not a long route so it is better to carry spare material just in case.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
Take the A-2412 towards Beceite. Cross the village and look for the track of La Pesquera. We go up the track next to the river Ulldemo to an esplanade with a sign indicating Penyagalera, here we leave the access car.
We return almost to Beceite to take the track to the right towards Arnes, 4kms later we cross the Notaris ravine and see our walls on the right. We park the car to return

Approach: (machine translated)
By the comino that goes up to Penyagalera (white and yellow marks of PR) to the ruined hut at the top, here we have to leave the trail and go north towards the small basin of our ravine, gradually will be taking unevenness, approaching the descent.

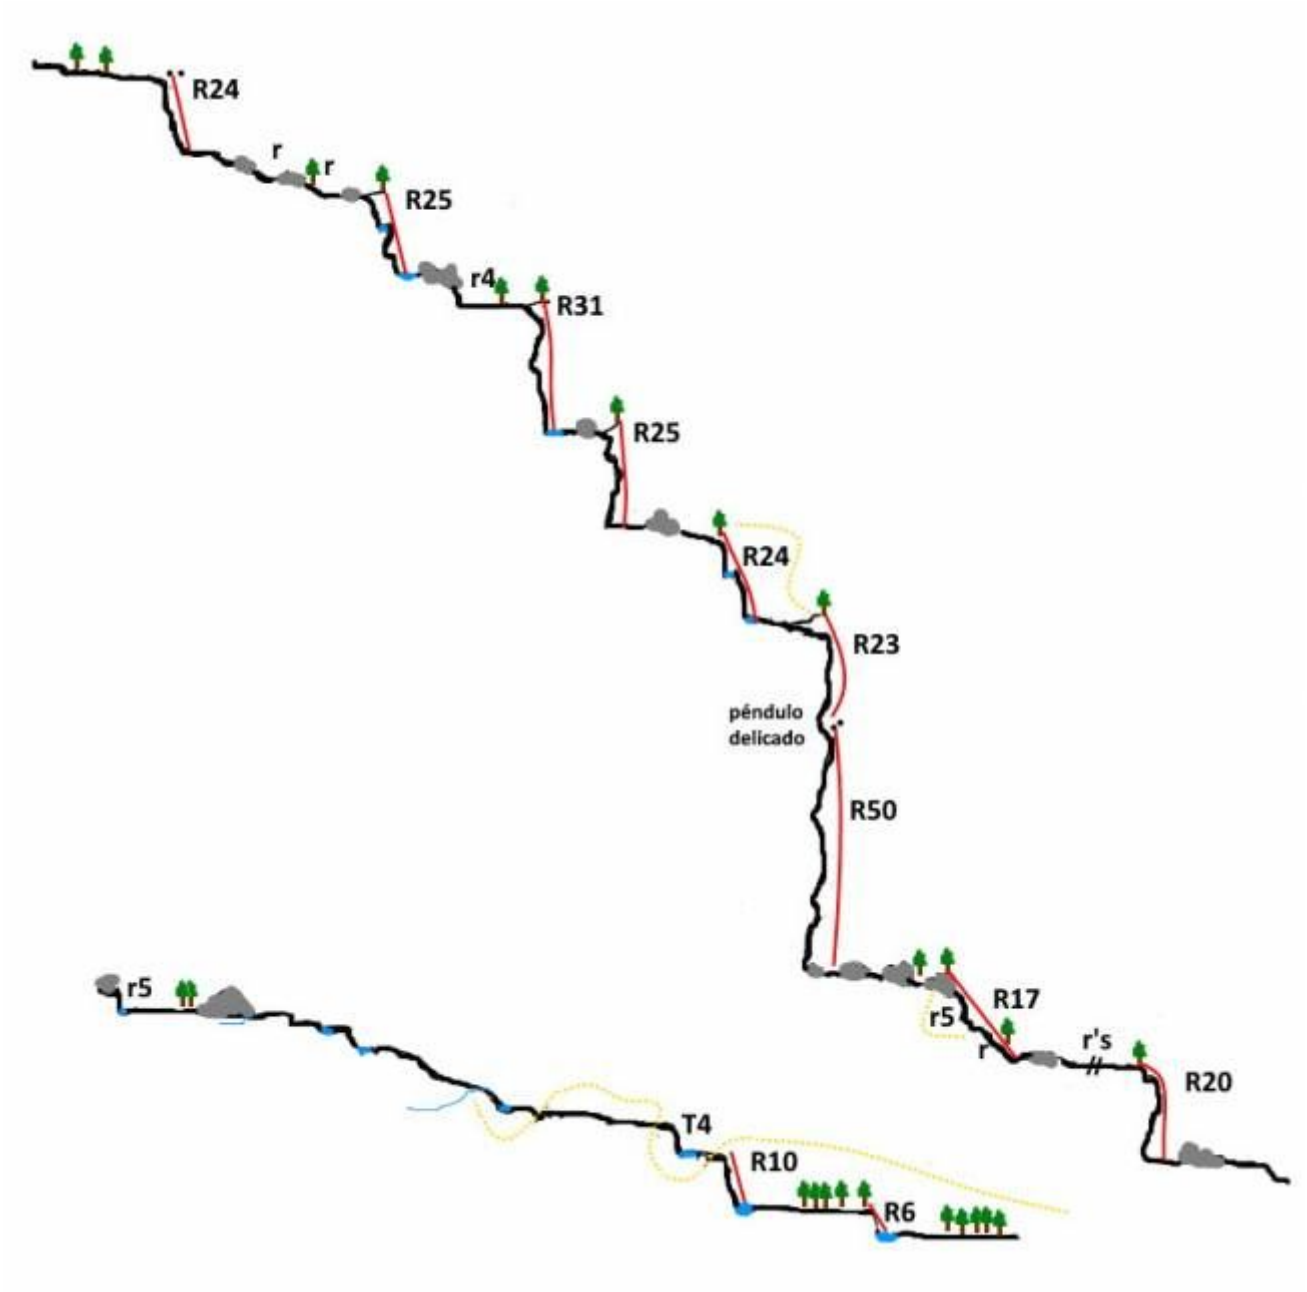

Tour: (machine translated)
A very interesting first part, once we overcome the cirque we will have a couple of rappels left.

Return: (machine translated)
When the trail crosses the path it is better to leave it, we only have 2 rappels without substance. We will follow the trail to the track where we have parked.
