Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Almost unknown ravine, its endless accesses and returns make visiting it a long and arduous activity.
Regulation of the Parc Natural del Port:

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We must be located in La Senia
We leave towards Els Ports and at the traffic circle we turn right towards the hermitage of Mare de Deu de Pallerols. A few curves will lead us to there at the top of the divide.

Approach: (machine translated)
By the PR that goes to Casa Bernarda, from that hill we will follow the trail along the entire divide with great views of Valldebous (right) and Saltadora (left).
We will continue until almost Els Plans where there is a fork in the trail, to the left to the Fou by the Racó de Tabac and to the right to our ravine.

Tour: (machine translated)
Long descent with a lot of vegetation and precarious facilities. The kettles do not cover and except for rains there is usually no water.

Return: (machine translated)
We will reach a shepherd's hut, from here we will intuit a path that goes down to the track at the height of the Bassa del Romiguer. We will take the track to the right and follow it until the last curve where there is a path to the left to go up to Casa Bernarda to take the PR access.
