Summary: (machine translated)
Dry canyon except after rainy seasons, interesting although with a moderate difficulty. Quite canyoned, good formations and very interesting in its development if we catch it after rains. Possibility of combination of vehicles although the time of the transfer does not compensate.
To review possible prohibitions of the canyon!
Within the Plan Rector de Uso y Gestión del Parque Rural de Teno (PRUG). Permission must be requested from the cabildo and maybe from the owners of the fincas.
