Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Recently opened, it is a dry canyon, simple in its progression, with one long rappel, two approach rappels and a couple of skills, all in single points. Simply to complete a day

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
We can go from Puente de la Reina or from Huesca on the A132, we will turn off on the A1206 to Bolea and Loarre.
At the height of p.k. 8 we have the detour to Aniés, cross the village and follow the track towards the hermitage of La Peña.
A kilometer after leaving the village we have a fork in a right turn, we will go left, and about 600m later in another right turn with a fork in front we will park.

Approach: (machine translated)
On the track in front, a zig-zag and 100m later a clearing on the left, time to leave the track and go looking for the riverbed.

Tour: (machine translated)
See mole

Return: (machine translated)
After the long rappel, we will have a few meters along the riverbed with several slopes and a path that crosses us, we will take it to the left, until we cross a small forest and go to the remains of a track that leads us to the track where we have left the vehicle.
