Summary: (machine translated)
Beautiful waterfalls over the Endara reservoir, wooded environment with lots of vegetation, the lushness of the place is worth it. The rappels are camped and the ravine is open.
Caution in the return if we want to return through the tunnel, much better to go up the upper path.

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
If we are at the Endara reservoir, if we go down from Lesaka, at pk 14 we will be able to see them on the other side among the dense vegetation.
We will continue to the port, we will be able to park before the tunnel, on the left.
On the other side of the tunnel we have the Aritxulo hostel, where we can park.

Approach: (machine translated)
From the hostel we go up to the port and take the track that goes straight ahead and enters the forest. Once inside the forest we will pass a first stream and in the second we will go to the left, parallel to the stream until we reach the waterfalls. This part is somewhat dressed.

Tour: (machine translated)
Beautiful open waterfalls, with good flow they are a delight. The rappels can be avoided through the forest

Return: (machine translated)
When we reach the canal we follow it to the road. Before reaching the road we can shorten if we want (see map).
To avoid the tunnel we have several options
